

Be the change you wish to see in the world!

SMILE

and change the world one gesture of kindness at a time.

Too much of every day is spent drawn inward upon ourselves - thinking about ourselves.

You are my brother or sister in humanity and I know you are different from me, but in many ways we are the same! I love you with Divine love and I respect you and honor you!

I want all good things for you and yours.

Sometimes it is difficult for us to see through our own hurts and needs that someone else is suffering too.

Let us begin today to be kinder and gentler and more patient with one another, so S.M.I.L.E. ...

See the heart and soul of your Brother.

Make a connection

Identify with them on some level

Love with divine love

Evolve your world!
